I/We request that Bankstown City Council give consideration to allowing the deferment of rates, charges and interest on the above property due to financial hardship.

I/We understand that debts will accrue until:

1. there is a change in the ownership of the property through sale or Estate, or
2. I/We or both should leave the property but retain ownership, (e.g. move to a hostel, nursing home or other accommodation), or
3. I/We or both become ineligible for a pension concession on our rates.

I/We understand that the outstanding rates and annual charges are subject to interest in accordance with the Local Government Act, 1993.

I/We understand that if the rates and annual charges remain unpaid for a maximum period of nineteen (19) years then, I/We will commence payment of the rates and charges by periodic instalments to ensure that no more than nineteen (19) years outstanding remain at any time. I/We understand that if the debt exceeds nineteen years, Council may be required to formally secure the debt in accordance with the Local Government Act 1993.
