1.0 VACANT LAND CHARGE – DOMESTIC WASTE

1.1 What is it?

A charge for waste services is applied to all residential properties even if the bins are not used. If the property is a vacant block, Council must still apply the charge, but it can be levied at a lower rate.

1.2 How much?

The Vacant Land Charge - Domestic Waste charge is $140.00 per annum

1.3 Who can apply for a Vacant Land Charge?

1. Owners of the land paying the Rates and the Domestic Waste Charge, when:

- a. the parcel of land is vacant or being developed
- b. all domestic garbage and recycling bins have been removed by Council (organised by the owner)

1.4 How do I apply for a Vacant Land Charge?

1. If this is an existing block of land that has not been developed, simply email, post or fax this form (completed) to the number below.
2. If the land is being developed, within 2 months of receiving the building demolition certificate, fax this form (completed) with the building demolition certificate to the number below.
3. Council will then amend your rates on a 'pro-rata' basis.

1.5 Council must be contacted when the building becomes habitable to have the bins returned to the property. The Domestic Waste Fee will be applied pro rata from the 1st day of each quarter (1 July, 1 October, 1 January, 1 April)
